Birthingway College Library was awarded Federal funds from the National Library of Medicine, National Institutes of Health, Department of Health and Human Services, for our Sharing the S.T.O.R.E. (Slides, Thesis, Our Recordings, Etc.) project.

This project is designed to improve access to our original collections of slides, theses, sound and video instructional recordings, diagrams, handouts, and other materials produced at Birthingway College of Midwifery. Our goal is to digitize, store, catalog, and electronically disseminate materials in the collection. We will move toward online access to this collection as well. Digitizing these collections will benefit Birthingway College's students, faculty, research partners, and healthcare provider partners. It will also help library staff to more efficiently respond to information requests from outside the Birthingway College community.

What does this mean to you?

We will begin with our collection of student research/thesis projects. Since you have completed your research project paper, we are contacting you to get your permission to digitize and disseminate your paper. You will retain all ownership of the paper and the paper will be clearly labeled that you are giving Birthingway permission to copy and distribute your paper.

What will happen to your research paper?

Once we have your permission to use it, we will create an electronic version of your project and allow our library patrons to check out a copy to use as a reference.

If you have any questions or concerns, please don't hesitate to contact me.

Warmly,
Lauren Ferns
